Beavertown Historical Society Hosted Successful Fund Raiser

By Kay Poeth

Mary Ann Zechman and Richard Shaffer hope to be lucky winners in the Chinese Auction hosted by the Beavertown Historical Society.

The Chinese Auction hosted by the Beavertown Historical Society on Feb. 26-27 was a huge success. With over 400 items including 122 cash and gift cards, attendees has a wide choice of potential prizes to tempt them. 241 businesses donated items and another 157 were donated by community members.

"The Beavertown Historical Society would like to thank all the businesses and people from the community for the donations. We also appreciate everyone who helped make this event such a huge success especially all those who attended and purchased tickets for a chance to win one or more of the over 400 items that were donated," said member Karen Burns. "This was an extremely successful fund raiser for our organization."

The winner of the diamond pendant was Mrs. Jo Mattern of Beavertown. The pendant was donated by 4 Star Jewelers in Burnham.

The Beavertown Historical Society will be using the proceeds to pay for the time capsule that will be dedicated on Memorial Day and the 2016 community picnic this summer.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

Self check-out registers

When you shop for groceries at a supercenter, do you use the conveniently located self check-out "fast lane" registers? If you do, are you getting a discount? Are you doing a better job of bagging your groceries than a well trained cashier? Does that supercenter offer lower prices than other smaller grocery stores?

When enough customers use those self check-out registers, they are actually encouraging and enabling the managers of those supercenters to hire fewer employees, eliminate express lanes and increase corporate profits. It also empowers the overpaid CEOs to demand even larger financial package with better fringe benefits that all customers pay for.

Remember, the board of directors, the stockholders, the management team and the CEO of that supercenter and their bankers' thank you for bagging your won groceries and for using the self check-out registers.

Post 23: Beyond Ceremony To Community Service

By Kay Poeth

Comradery, Dedication, Exuberance, and Motivation emanate from the members of Erman E. Lepley American Legion Post 23 as they embrace each and every activity. Post 23 has long been noted for their ceremonial duties.

Post 23 participates in Military Funerals, acts as Color Guards in parades, builds parade floats, supports and assists in Eagle Scout projects, and transports veterans to medical appointments. The group donated over 100 stuffed animals to the Beaver Springs and Beavertown ambulance clubs and to pediatric patients at Evangelical Hospital. They send cards and visit hospitalized members. They host an annual Flag Retirement Ceremony at the Beaver Fair.

Every year on the Thursday before Memorial Day, the Honor Guard from Post 23 visits 7 rural cemeteries to honor their departed comrades with a service consisting of a Firing Squad, prayer and the playing of Taps. On Memorial Day they conduct three services. During the Memorial Day ceremonies Post 23 also supports the Five Barley Loaves Food Bank by requesting that attendees bring food items for the food bank.

Since Memorial Day 2015 to the end of the year, Post 23 has accumulated 493 hours of community service, averaging 15 hours per week.

"All American Legion members have served our great nation and continue to serve our local community," noted Clay Henry.

Early in 2015, the post decided to expand their service beyond ceremonial duties and began focusing on community service projects. For any of the work projects, 7-12 members volunteer their talents, skills, and time.

They recently constructed shelves at the MACC and relocated lockers in the locker room. In the spring the members will reset the flag at the Beaver Springs Senior Center and perform other maintenance work. They have volunteered to assist in anticipated projects at the Beaver Fairgrounds as well.

Tracey Bobb, Program Director at the MACC commented, "The M.A.C.C. is so appreciative of the Erman E. Lepley American Legion Post 23 for their talents. The shelves that they built in our storage room are a welcomed addition to the M.A.C.C."

The post has 78 members. Some members are active military servicemen. Some are retired from military service, while others are retired from civilian jobs. Many are still employed working full or part-time jobs. Recently, a father, daughter and son-in-law made it a family affair and joined Post 23.

Twice a year the Post hosts a Pot Pie and Bake Sale fundraiser. What Post 23 lacks funds to make monetary donations, their support of the community via their ceremonial services and now their manpower efforts are priceless.

"Post 23's success depends on the membership's dedication, motivation, and willingness to volunteer," stated Henry. "And our members have all of those areas well covered."

Any non-profit organization in Beaver Township, Beavertown Borough, Adams Township, or Spring Township that could use a helping hand is invited to contact 570-658-3679 for more information.

Penske Teams Double Down At Vegas

By: Gerald Hodges/the Racing Reporter

LAS VEGAS, Nev.--Penske Racers Brad Keselowski and Joey Logano finished 1-2 in Sunday's 267-lap Sprint Cup race.

Keselowski was running third on the race's last restart, with 35 laps to go, behind the leader Kyle Busch and teammate Logano. The three leaders maintained their position until Keselowski was able to move ahead of Logano on lap 254. Five laps later, Keselowski was able to slip by Busch for the lead, and went on to victory lane.

"I really liked the way the car handled," said Keselowski. "You know we got that pit road speeding penalty and it put us behind, but the way the car was handling I knew we could make it back to the front.

"It's been a long time since we had a win, and this really feels good."

Logano led 70 laps, but he was no match for Keselowski as the race neared its end.

"It was a great race," said Logano. "I wasn't sure I had enough to catch Kyle, so there was no use in me trying to race Brad and hold him back, because he was faster than me. The team gave me a great car, and even though a win would have made me feel better, I'm happy that Brad could win."

Jimmie Johnson, last week's Atlanta winner edged ahead of Busch's car just before the two crossed the finish line for third.

"It was a fantastic race for us," said Johnson. "We had a fast car, not the fastest, but these kind of races keep you in the game."

Kyle Busch led 38 laps, but the handling went away on his No. 18 Joe Gibbs Toyota with about 10 laps remaining, and he had to settle for fourth.

"I don't know what happened," said Busch. "There was something about those last right side tires we put on, and I just couldn't get the job done."

Austin Dillon finished a strong fifth, followed by Ryan Blaney, Kevin Harvick, Dale Earnhardt Jr., Kurt Busch, and Kasey Kahne.

WHO IS LANDON CASSILL

Landon Cassill is the driver of the No 38 Front Row Motorsports Ford in the Sprint Cup Series.

Like most of the lesser known drivers, Cassill is hardly a household name, but he has been involved in racing for over 13 years.

Cassill was born in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and began racing when he was three years old. He finished second in the Pro Kart Tour at Atlanta at age 10. The following year, he earned his first of two Kart Series national championships.

At age 16, he became the youngest winner in American Speed Association history when he won at Lake Erie Speedway on June 9, 2006.

Cassill was signed by Hendrick Motorsports in December 2006. In 2007, he worked in the team's research and development program and drove during practices for the Hendrick pit crews. Cassill made his Nationwide Series debut at Gateway in July 2007. He was named Rookie of the Year in 2008.

In early February 2012, it was announced that Cassill would drive for Front Row Motorsports, in the Sprint Cup Series, but the deal fell through. Shortly afterwards, he started driving the No. 83 for BK Racing. He finished 31st in season points.

In the 2014 Cup season, he finished 12th at Daytona, and had his best career finish of 4th at Chicago.

On February 2, 2015, Snap Fitness returned to the No. 40 team for a second year, sponsoring the races at Daytona, Atlanta, the All-Star Showdown, Charlotte Motor Speedway, Michigan International Speedway, and Darlington. He ran very strongly at Daytona in July, but his underfunded car was involved in a massive crash on the last lap at the checkered flag, and he wound up 13th.

While his record is not too impressive, neither has been the quality of his equipment. While the 26 year old driver might not have set the racing world on fire with his finishes, he has certainly put his heart into it.

"Racing is all I know," he said during a 2015 interview. "It's what I love and I don't ever think about life without driving a race car."

Keep on, keeping on Landon. NASCAR needs a lot more drivers like you.

DOVER GETS $15-MILLION IN TV REVEUNUE PER RACE

Fans shouldn't feel sorry for those tracks that do not fill all of their seats at NASCAR races. If no one showed up, the amount of money received from television revenue would still allow them to turn a profit.

Dover Downs race track filed financial information with the Securities and Exchange Commission last week. The money Dover will get from the NASCAR television package will increase from 3.37 percent to 4.25 percent annually over the next five years. Dover will receive $30.7 million in television money for its two Sprint Cup weekends this season, and it will increase anywhere from $1.1 million to $1.4 million a year through 2020.

Now you might better understand why tracks and NASCAR don't panic when the stadiums are not filled.

NBC and Fox are taking care of them.

While the tracks might be taking money to the bank, television viewership is another story.

The 2016 Daytona and Atlanta races had less fans watching at home than in 2015, 2014, or 2013.

The Atlanta race scored its lowest rating since Fox acquired the television rights. Sunday's Sprint Cup race from Atlanta earned a 3.7 per cent overnight rating; down 27 per cent from last year and the lowest overnight for the second race of the season since Fox began airing races in 2001.

Ratings for the Daytona 500 neared a record-low despite the closest finish in race history. This year's 500 was down 14 per cent from a year ago.

Port Royal Speedway Opens 2016 Season March 12

Port Royal Speedway will open the 2016 racing season this Saturday, March 12 at 6 pm with a twin bill of Weikert's Livestock 410 sprints paying $3,500 to win and super late models paying $2,000 to win. General admission gates will open at 4 pm with pit gates opening at 3 pm. Adult general admission for the first show of the season is $15 with students ages 12 – 18 priced at JUST $7.

The first 500 fans through the general admission gate will receive a FREE 2016 schedule magnet, sponsored by Juniata Beverage.

In last year's season lidlifer on April 4, East Berlin's Aaron Ott won his first ever 410 sprint main at the historic oval while Mike Lupfer began what would be his domination of the early season by claiming the first three features in a row. Ott stayed in front of Nate Snyder and Lucas Wolfe for the victory last year. He entered the rear of the field on the sixth lap with Snyder, Wolfe and Logan Wagner in pursuit.

Mike Lupfer drew the pole for the start of the 22-lap super late model main and outraced Coleby Frye for the lead as the pair ran down the backstretch to complete the first circuit. Frye raced Lupfer hard back to the line but Lupfer had the lead and it was a control he would not relinquish for the rest of the distance as he pretty much annihilated the field in the non-stop affair. Lucas Wolfe and Lupfer are the defending division champions.

Rick Lafferty kicked off the decade at Port Royal in 2010 with an opening day sprint car victory followed by Blane Heimbach in 2011, Greg Hodnett in 2012, Dave Blaney in 2013 and Blane Heimbach again in 2014.

Port Royal Speedway returns to action on March 19 with another dual division card of 410 sprints and super late models at 6 pm before March 26 gives way to an early season late model lovers delight when the UFO Late Models hit town along with the 410 sprints on Kids Easter Night. The UFO 358 late models are also on the agenda.

Stay up to date with all the latest Port Royal news and information by visiting the oval's official website at www.portroyalspeedway.com or by following the track on Facebook or Twitter.

Orthodox Men's Quartet To Perform In Beavertown

The traveling Orthodox Men's Quartet of State College, announced that they will sing the worship hymns and responses at the Chapel of the Holy Spirit on Sunday, March 20 at 10:00 a.m.. The quartet will perform English translations of ancient (4th century and earlier) compositions in their original settings, based entirely on the Christian Old and New Testament canons of scripture. In particular, Znamenny, Kievan, and Byzantine chants will be featured.

"An important prayer [said during the service is] 'God will sanctify those who love the beauty of His house,'" said choirmaster Benedict Sheehan who compiled the music that will be sung at the Chapel. "How do we love the beauty of God's house? We do it by beautifying God's house. That could be done through architecture, ... through iconography, ... but also through beautiful singing." Though less than a year old, the Chapel's simple, but beautiful, architecture and artwork have become known throughout the Orthodox world for its excellent acoustics and faithfulness to traditional Christian design.

Guest celebrant and homilist Archpriest John Reeves, also of State College, will preside at the service. Coffee and fellowship will follow. For more information, contact Rev. Deacon David Smith, Chapel administrator, at (570) 541-8895.

Local Siblings Donate To Haven To Home

Haven to Hone Canine Rescue received some birthday gifts. The Mangels siblings of Selinsgrove all recently celebrated birthdays and Zach (13), Ryan (12), and Abby (9) all asked for gifts to help the dogs in lieu of presents for themselves. This is the 2nd consecutive year that Zach and Ryan donated on their birthdays and this year, Abby joined in too. Friends and family gave dog food, toys, and treats which were delivered to Haven to Home in Milton.

Haven to Home Canine Rescue is an all-volunteer, 501(c)(3) organization, that was founded in June 2008. "Cross Walk"

On Good Friday, March 25, Christ Church of Beaver Springs will be demonstrating a "Cross Walk." Men from Christ Church and other churches will be carrying a full size 12 ft x 6 ft wooden cross. Each man will be carrying the cross between through 3/4- 1 mile lengths. The Cross Walk total approximately 27 miles.

This year's walk will be starting in Yeagertown at Faye Wagner Tire at approximately 6:30 am. The route for the walk will then proceed through Burnham to Lewistown, to route 522 at the Dodge dealership, then continue north on Route 522 and reach its final destination at Christ Church in Beaver Springs. The route could be modified on the day of the walk. The public is invited to attend the Good Friday Service at the church at 7 pm.

The goal of the Cross Walk is to keep Christ and his sacrifice front and center as we celebrate Easter this year. The walkers will be willing to stop and share with anyone. They will also be distributing hand cut nail crosses with a message attached and Bibles to anyone who would like to have one.

Freeburg Silk Mill Operates Steadily

~ Original September 12, 1940

One of the strong, modern industries that our area presents is the Freeburg Silk Mill, a silk throwing plant owned and managed by Walter Reichen, who learned the trade in the large throwing mills in Switzerland.

Operating exclusively for the knitting trade on a commission throwster basis, the Freeburg mill for many years has been the largest employment center in that Snyder county community. The late Edgar R. Wingard, onetime extensive operator in the silk industry in this section, built the mill in Freeburg in 1924. Reichen learned the rudiments of the silk throwing business in the large centers of that industry in Switzerland. In 1917, as a youth of 17, he entered on the large mills there and for three years served an apprenticeship, while he learned the business from the "ground up." He studied all branches of silk throwing, from the mechanical end in the machine shop to the scientific end in the laboratories.

Upon completing the three-year apprenticeship, Reichen in 1920 successfully passed the Swiss government examination, and became a qualified throwster. Then he embarked for the United States, to take part in the fast developing silk industry in this country.

Capable men were needed in the silk throwing plants of America, and Reichen's instruction under the old masters in Switzerland was a high recommendation. He had no difficulty in securing a position in New York City, although he was only 20 years of age.

Bought Mill in 1935

The Schwartzenbach-Huber Company of New York, then the world's largest silk house, engaged his services in the extensive laboratories of their plant in the metropolis. He remained with that organization three years.

His next position was at Middletown, New York, where he took charge of a large mill. Reichen's efforts in that plant were rewarded with a new post as general superintendent of the Universal Industrial Corporation, Danville.

Sixteen mills were under his direction while located in Danville. The business developed under Reichen, who installed many new productive methods in the plants over which he was superintendent.

Then his interest became centered about a mill of his own. His experience in all branches of the industry and the "front-office" knowledge he gained while in America qualified him for this goal. In 1931 he saw an opportunity to enter the field by himself, with Freeburg as the center of his operations.

In that year, he leased the mill in Freeburg. The volume of business Reichen's industry handled during its first years justified his move of leasing the plants, and in 1935 he purchased the Freeburg Silk Mill.

Many changes have been wrought in the Freeburg industry since Reichen bought it. The plant has been fully re-quipped with the finest machinery on the market. Production has been stepped up by the new equipment until today the output of the mill is on a par with other mills of comparable size.

This progressive industry has played a prominent part in the financial security of residents of the Freeburg community. The annual payroll of the Reichen plant approximates $50,000, which the employes spend in this locality. Employes and business of our area have both profited from the Freeburg Silk Mill under the management of Walter Reichen.

Silk Throwing Process

Silk throwing is converting raw silk into silk yarn. The explanation is simpler than the processes involved.

Commission throwsters sell the services of their mill. They do not buy the raw silk, and they do not sell the silk yarn. They merely weave the threads of raw silk into yarn, on a commission basis. The hosiery mills send the raw material to Reichen's plant, after the hosiery manufacturers buy the silk from China or Japan.

Throwing mills receive raw silk in bales covered by straw mats. Each bale weighs 135 pounds, and contains 28 to 30 books of silk skeins, with 28 to 30 skeins to each book. A skein contains approximately 45,000 yards of raw silk strand, about the thickness of a human hair.

Spinning of silk threads is an interesting and colorful sight. One sees rows upon rows of machines engaged in spinning raw silk tinted the colors of the rainbow.

Upon receipt of the silk at the throwing mill, it is soaked overnight in sulfinated olive oil. This process softens the strands. Skeins are then placed on swifts, from which the silk is redrawn on winder spools. Then these spools are placed on a doubling machine where the needed number of stands are doubled, according to the "endage" required by the hosiery manufacturer. The doubling spools are placed on a spinning machine with spindles revolving at a high rate of speed. After spun on the new holders the silk is steamed for more than an hour. When it is dry, all kinks have been removed. Then it is redrawn onto shipping spools preparatory to delivery to the hosiery mill.

Local Business Celebrates Professional Pet Sitters Week™

Wigglin' Butts Pet Sitting encourages pet owners and pet lovers alike to celebrate the 22nd annual Professional Pet Sitters Week, March 6-12, 2016. Professional Pet Sitters Week™ (PPSW™) was introduced by Pet Sitters International (PSI) in 1995.

This international week of recognition seeks to educate pet owners about the advantages of using professional pet sitters, as well as to encourage the public to explore professional pet sitting as a viable and rewarding career opportunity.

This year, PSI member business Wigglin' Butts Pet Sitting is commemorating Professional Pet Sitters Week by donating a portion of the week's profits to Rescue Road Warriors.

"Rescue Road Warriors (RRW) was created over 8 years ago to help the plight of the puppy mill survivors of Missouri," says Kristy Ritter, a coordinator for RRW. "Over the years RRW has also been helping to transport animals from high kill shelters,on top of the puppy mill survivors. We are a all volunteer transport group that provides the freedom ride to approved rescues for the voiceless. In the 8 plus years RRW has been doing transports, we have transported over 10,000 dogs/cats to freedom... lives who got their second chance to be part of a family!! Rescue Road Warriors relies solely on donations to support the volunteers with gas funding when needed, as well as helping rescues with reducing their costs to save a lives."

The Rescue Road Warriors route passes our area via Rt 80. If you would like to make a donation to Rescue Road Warriors you can mail a check to: Rescue Road Warriors 9847 Lindhall Lane St Louis MO 63123. You can also donate via paypal or get more info on volunteering at dawgcr8@gmail.com Thank you for helping RRW continue their mission to save the precious lives of the voiceless.

"Wigglin' Butts Pet Sitting is committed to providing the best quality service to our pet-owning clients and is excited to celebrate this week that recognizes the pet-sitting industry on a global scale," says Christine Sanders, owner. "We want local pet owners to understand the importance of selecting professional pet sitters for their pet-care needs."

With pet ownership at a record high, the need for pet-care services is greater than ever before.

"The pet-sitting industry has grown significantly over the past few decades. With the growth of the industry, it's important for pet owners to seek out the services of professional pet sitters," said Patti Moran, president of PSI. "Professional pet sitters maintain insurance and bonding, provide proof of a clear criminal history and take advantage of continuing education to ensure they can offer the best possible care to clients' pets.

PSI is the world's largest educational association for professional pet sitters. Since 1994 PSI's membership has grown to nearly 7,000 independent professional pet-sitting businesses that service more than 740,000 pet-owning households each year.

Wigglin' Butts Pet Sitting and Dog Walking has been a member of PSI since opening in 2015 and offers services to pet owners in areas of Snyder and Union counties. They also offer family-style dog lodging in Sanders' home, which is licensed as a PA kennel.

Wigglin' Butts Pet Sitting and Dog Walking invites anyone interested in learning more about the advantages of hiring a professional pet sitter to visit their website at www.wigglinbuttspetsitting.com. To learn more about PPSW and how you can participate, visit the PSI website, www.petsit.com.

On or about March 21, 2016, Selinsgrove Borough will submit a request to the Department of Community and Economic Development (DCED) for the release of Community Development Block Grant Disaster Recovery (CDBG-DR) funds appropriated by the Department of Housing and Urban Development Appropriations Act, 2012 (Pub. L. 112-55, approved November 18, 2011), Contract Number C000062143, in the approximate amount of $500,000, to undertake the following project:

The work will include, but is not necessarily limited to, elevation of homes above the 100-year floodplain, flood mitigation improvements, relocation of utilities, relocation assistance, and correction of housing code deficiencies to include rehabilitation or replacement of roofs, downspouts and gutters, windows, porches, steps, balconies, exterior doors and screen doors, fascia and soffits, exterior painting or siding, sidewalks, electrical system improvements, furnace, water heater, plumbing, handrails/guardrails, lead-paint related work, interior doors, bathroom improvements, wall/ceiling/floor repair, interior painting, insulation, and weatherization.

The proposed housing rehabilitation activities to be funded under the CDBG-DR program are Categorically Excluded from the National Environmental Policy Act requirements, but are subject to compliance with the environmental laws and authorities listed at §58.5 of 24 CFR Part 58. In accordance with §58.15, a tiered review process has been structured, whereby some environmental laws and authorities are being reviewed and studied for the intended target area listed above. An Environmental Review Record (ERR) that documents the environmental determinations for this project is on file at Selinsgrove Borough, One North High Street, Selinsgrove, PA 17870-1548, (570) 374-2311, or at SEDA-Council of Governments, 201 Furnace Road, Lewisburg, PA 17837, 1-800-332-6701, and may be examined or copied weekdays 9:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M. The ERR is also available at http://www.seda-cog.org/Pages/communitydevelopment.aspx.

PUBLIC COMMENTS

Any individual, group, or agency may submit written comments on the ERR to Teri Provost, Community Development Program, SEDA-COG, or Paul Williams, Selinsgrove Borough, addresses above. DCED's approval of the certification satisfies its responsibilities under NEPA and related laws and authorities, and allows Selinsgrove Borough to utilize federal funds and implement the program.

OBJECTIONS TO RELEASE OF FUNDS

DCED will consider objections to its release of funds and Selinsgrove Borough's certification received by April 6, 2016 or for a period of 15 days from its receipt of the request (whichever is later) only if they are on one of the following basis: (a) that the certification was not in fact executed by the Certifying Officer of Selinsgrove Borough; or (b) Selinsgrove Borough has omitted a step or failed to make a decision or finding by HUD regulations 24 CFR Part 58; or (c) the grant recipient or other participants in the development process have committed funds, incurred costs or undertaken activities not authorized by 24 CFR Part 58 before approval of a release of funds by DCED; or (d) another Federal agency acting pursuant to 40 CFR Part 1504 has submitted a written finding that the project is unsatisfactory from the standpoint of environmental quality. Nancy Stull and Rich Leitzel receive the royal treatment by scouts Joel Bowersox, Robert Petty, Dylan Specer, Aiden Steininger, Gunther Wagner, and Andrew Knepp at the Spaghetti Supper held on Saturday, March 5 benefitting Boy Scout Troop 415. The scouts fed approximately 125 guests, raised over $600, and had 30 scouts and parents helping to cook, serve, and clean up.

Auctioneer Phil Lash displays one of the many items that were available for bidding during the Basket Auction to benefit the McClure Veterans' Pool.

McClure Veterans' Pool Auction

"It is one of our biggest fundraisers," said Lou Ann Wilson of the McClure Veterans' Pool Auction held on March 5. 88 baskets enticed bidders and 194 Chinese Jenn Arnold, Jackie Rager and Dylinn Rice hope to be winners in the Chinese Auction to benefit the McClure Veterans' Pool. Auction tempted people to fill cups with tickets.

"We had a tremendous response and we truly appreciate the generosity of the community and surrounding areas," commented Adam Ewig. "In the summer the pool brings smiles to many kids' faces and this event helps to keep the pool open and free."

According to Janet Will, "The pool was built in 1950 to honor all veterans. At that time, the decision was made that the pool be open free of charge to the public. Sixty-six years later, the pool is still honoring that wish! We could not do that without the help of those in the local and surrounding communities. Your generosity is appreciated so much! We can all be proud that we have a free pool to enjoy. We invite all to come and visit us this summer!"

Putting Fore Pages

The Rudy Gelnett Memorial Library was transformed into a miniature golf course for the 2nd annual Putting Fore Pages fundraiser.

"Everyone seemed to have fun, and I know the volunteers really enjoyed it too," says Marsha Lemons, library board president. "Friday night, participants visited with friends, challenged each other on the mini golf course and enjoyed good food donated by local businesses, along with beer donated by the Selin's Grove Brewing Company and wine donated by Shade Mountain Winery."

"On Saturday, over 150 kids, teens and adults showed up to putt around the library," says Pam Ross, executive director of the libraries. "Fundraisers like this help us buy books, offer access to computers for those who need it and develop children's programs, and so much more. We appreciate the support of the community, our volunteers and all of our sponsors."

The Selinsgrove High School men's golf team played a round in a spirited competition. This year's winner, Brandon Deans, wrested the trophy from last year's champion, Logan Sears.

The weekend was a huge success, raising more than $13,000 for Snyder County Libraries.

On Saturday the high school championship winners were: Tyler Mertz, Aaron Zechman, Griffin Kirchner, Logan Sears, Carter Hane, Brandon Deans and Rocco Napoli. Brandon Deans was the overall individual champion.

Eve Caron, Mackenzie Bailor, Tori Ross, Maya Caronand Pamela Ross, and Raven Rudnitsky root, cajole, cheer and tease one another as they putter around the golf course inside the Rudy Gelnett Memorial Library.
